COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

WHAT IS IT?

The AEROFUSE Community of Practice is a collaborative network that brings together stakeholders from across the European aerospace and defence ecosystem. It supports knowledge exchange, validation of project results, and the development of future skills solutions.

WHY JOIN?

The Community is open to organisations and experts from industry, education and training, research, policy, and related initiatives. Members benefit from access to project insights, participation in workshops and consultations, networking opportunities, and increased visibility at European level.

HOW TO JOIN?

Participation is free and based on voluntary registration. By joining, you will receive updates, invitations to activities, and opportunities to contribute to AEROFUSE outputs. All personal data is processed in accordance with GDPR.
